

Explore the Wonders of Baltimore's Inner Harbor With the Nutley Public Library, October 17 & 18

The Inner Harbor is a historic seaport, tourist attraction, and iconic landmark of the City of Baltimore, Maryland. The term "Inner Harbor" is used not just for the water but for the surrounding area of the city. The harbor also has a water taxi that connects the Inner Harbor to historic Fort McHenry where the "Star Spangled Banner" was penned.

The National Aquarium in Baltimore is a public aquarium located at 501 E Pratt St. in the Inner Harbor area of Baltimore, Maryland, USA. It was opened in 1981. The aquarium has a collection of 16,500 specimens of 660 different species. Particular attractions include the dolphin display, rooftop rainforest, and central ray pool, and multiple-story shark tank. The National Aquarium in Baltimore is widely considered to be one of the best in the United States, if not the whole world. Another major attraction is the U.S.S. Constellation, sister ship of U.S.S. Constitution, known in history as "Old Ironsides."

October 17 & 18, 2009

Cost: $189 per person double occupancy at Marriott Renaissance Harborplace Hotel ($279 single occupancy available). Payment in full is required by September 15, 2009. Note: NJDOE Provider #4484 Nutley Public Library Two Credits for teachers for this tour.

- Bus transportation from the following locations at Clifton City Hall (8 a.m.), Nutley Library (8:30) and 560 Sylvan Ave. (Rte. 9W), Englewood Cliffs 9 a.m. Other stops may be added if needed.
- Famous Sunday Brunch at Waterside in hotel overlooking harbor is $25 additional per person. Reservations for brunch are required in advance by email to Linda@MainlyMeetingsTravel.com or by calling 201-568-2146.

REFUND POLICY: Tickets are sold on a first-come, first-served basis. No refunds except if Mainly Meetings Travel LLC cancels the tour. Registrants may give their places to other parties, but MMT must be notified before the tour date.