Celebrate
Books with Bite @ your library[®]
During Teen Read Week 2008

Nutley teens will be reading for the fun of it as Nutley Public Library celebrates the eleventh annual Teen Read Week, October 12 – 18, 2008. The Nutley Library joins thousands of other libraries, schools and bookstores across the country to encourage teens to celebrate the theme "Books with Bite @ your library." Teen Read Week is the national adolescent literacy initiative of the Young Adult Library Services Association (YALSA). The theme this year encourages teens to read a wide variety of books and graphic novels from animals to vampires to cooking just, "...for the fun of it."

Teen Read Week Activities:

-Book & Movie Party featuring a viewing of "Jaws" with pizza and a raffle for some great prizes on Tuesday, Oct. 14, 2008, from 3:00-5:00 p.m.

Teen Advisory Group. The Voice for Teens

Teen Advisory Group (TAG), will meet on Tuesday September 23, 2008, from 3:30-4:40. Teens are encouraged to join their peers in advocating for excellent teen library services. After-school snacks, friendship and the free flow of ideas will kick-off the 2008—2009 TAG activities.

TAG will meet monthly to plan library programs and activities for teens. The group will also recommend and review the best books, manga, DVDs, magazines, and music for the library to purchase for teens to borrow. Look for applications throughout the library and contact Ms. K with any questions about T.A.G. (e-mail: mkociolek@bccls.org).
